

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE

Jess Morgan has moved to Linnton.
Dan Freeman is improving rapidly from typhoid fever.

The service flag has been hung in the Red Cross room.

Harold Dodson has returned home after a visit to Dayton.

A. Harrison, of St. Helens, was visiting friends in Scappoose Monday.

Mrs. Cathcart is home again after spending the holiday season in Portland.

Mr. Hatt, of Fort Stevens, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Miller over Sunday.

Niblock, Holladay and Washburn attended Masonic lodge Saturday evening at St. Helens.

Mrs. Roscoe and children spent part of last week in Portland with her niece, Mrs. Thomas.

Mrs. J. G. Watts and Mrs. C. H. Johnston attended grand opera and heard "Aida" Monday night.

Congregational church Sunday school, 10:15; morning worship, at 11:15; evening service, 7:30.

Mr. Price is carrying his arm in a sling, the result of (Henry) kicking back, almost breaking the arm.

Carl Heimiller has resigned his position as clerk at Watts & Price store. Andrew Cholic is the new clerk.

Communion was served at the Congregational church last Sabbath. Eight new members were welcomed.

Ruskin Blatchford, who was threatened with pneumonia a week ago, is around again, and much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Cathcart were in Portland Sunday and Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Cathcart's mother.

Another letter from Herman Miller, who is across the pond, reports bitter cold weather but the boys are standing it fine.

William Cline was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital on Tuesday by Dr. Hatfield. He is reported very ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Bushman and family are home after having two weeks holiday with relatives and friends in Portland and the Willamette valley.

Loren Johnson did not return to Corvallis with Gladys on Sunday. He has sacrificed that pleasure to give a helping hand at home.

Public school opened Monday, after two weeks holiday. Miss Andrews, from the state of Washington, has been secured as eighth grade teacher.

Orville Garrison made another flying trip Sunday, being home from 9 a. m. to 1:20 p. m. He has again outshot every member of his company.

There was a party in the lecture room of the church Wednesday evening for the young folks. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Spalding, of Warren, was in Scappoose Saturday and Sunday bidding friends goodbye before leaving this part of the country. They are moving to Puyallup, Wash.

Tony Marek, who has been working in the mill of the Scappoose Lumber Co., had his right wrist severely crushed by a heavy timber falling on it Wednesday morning. Dr. Hatfield dressed the injury.

Thelma Bennett, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bennett, was taken to the hospital on Sunday and operated on for appendicitis. No report of her condition is at hand at the time of this writing.

The Red Cross had a good attendance at its regular meeting on Tuesday. After the sewing period many letters were read from our boys in the service thanking the society for their Christmas boxes. Reports were read from various committees showing much good work done by them. At election of officers Mrs. Maud Watts was reelected president; Mrs. Dodson, vice president; Mrs. John Anderson, secretary; Mrs. L. Bushman, treasurer. The society voted to turn in $100 to the Portland chapter. The society will soon pack their fourth box of finished articles.

WARREN

Adolph Widmer and son, of St. Johns, Ore., were visiting at Fred Boesel's home Monday.

Louis Boesel was home on a furlough Sunday, during which he spent most of the time in visiting his relatives.

Louie Muhr was spending a few days during the very first of the year at his home, after which he returned to Camp Lewis.

Miss Anna Peterson, a graduate of the 1917 class of Emanuel hospital, is spending two weeks at her home after which she intends to go to work at the same hospital.

Warren did its share in the great Red Cross drive just finished. We went over several days late, and in forty-eight hours registered 80 percent. The rest followed within a short time. Only two or three refused to join. They need not try to explain as we understand all too well. One hundred dollars was sent in and more is to follow. The ladies of the Red Cross Auxiliary are taking great interest in their work and are ready to send off another box.

An enjoyable evening was in store last Tuesday at the home of Ralph Tarbell, as it was the Christian Endeavor social evening. After the games were played and delicious refreshments were served.

The Dorcas Society held its regular monthly meeting last Saturday afternoon, January 5, at the home of B. A. Carlson, and many members were present. The most important business of the meeting was the election of officers, which are as follows: President, Mathilda Carlson; vice president, Signe Ekstrom; secretary, Anna Larsen; treasurer, Emma Dahlgren.

The high school student body welcomes the new member, Miss Ellen Lund, recently arrived from Washington. This makes the total enrollment of the high school 17. As soon as we receive the particulars regarding the county debate league we propose to get busy and go strong. The way things look now there will be probably one team of girls and one team of boys. We are very sorry to find ourselves unable to enter the basketball contests this season, since every one of last year's players are trying to build ships.

Last New Year's eve the Grange gave an open New Year's party. Each family brought its own lunch and happy smiles. A program was rendered, followed by the hearty supper. After this games were played, and the new year was ushered in hilariously. The party dispersed about 2 a. m. Next Saturday the Grange will have a special feature in the way of installation of officers for the new year. Among the officers which will be installed are the following: Master, A. Freeman; overseer, J. Bacon; lecturer, A. L. Morris; secretary, Alpheus Wellborn; treasurer, Arthur Lund; steward, Frank Hoyt; lady asst. steward, Fannie Cooper; assist. steward, Frank Beeler.

BACHELOR FLAT

Will Coon is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hammut.

Mrs. Eric Morton made a flying business trip to Seattle last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Lindberg visited at Mr. and Mrs. Almroth's last Sunday.

Mrs. Bergerson, of Port Townsend, Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Almroth.

Lawrence Johnson is one of the most popular young men in our midst now. Why? Because he has a Ford.

Mrs. Frank Neigle has been on the sick list but we are glad to hear she is better at this writing.

There will be a school meeting in the schoolhouse Saturday, the 12th, at 2 p. m., to discuss the building of a play shed.

Quite a number of the young folks from here visited the Warren Christian Endeavor last Sunday night, and reported a fine time, at the same time leaving an invitation to the Warren people to visit us.

Mrs. Morton went to Portland Monday to meet Mr. Morton, who was returning home from a visit to his old home in Sweden. Mr. Morton is glad to get back to the Flats again.

The Sewing Circle held its monthly meeting at Mrs. Guy Lillich's last Saturday. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Frank Burdahl, February 2. As it will be the meeting to elect officers it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

REUBEN

Mrs. T. C. Watts had as her guest Sunday, her brother Cal. Wilson, of Tide Creek.

After a few days' visit with friends in Portland, Mrs. Elsie Shatter has returned home.

Mrs. C. T. Rambalsky and daughter were guests of Mrs. Rambalsky's mother, Mrs. J. P. Emerson, at Mayger last Sunday.

A. E. Sieffert, wife and children returned Saturday afternoon, after a ten day visit with friends in Washington county.

Capt. Robert Fry has built a new house on his place in West Reuben and the residence is now occupied by E. E. Mallaber and family.

Wallace Eakin, son of Judge J. A. Eakin, of Astoria, passed through Reuben last Monday on his way to Bremerton, Wash. He has joined the navy.

This week the Warren Construction Company will finish the grade on the highway between Jane Creek and the cold storage plant at Goble. They have moved their camp to Goble and will now work on the grade between the plant and Near City.

Clark & Wilson, the Columbia Timber Co., moved their camp out to Tide Creek last Saturday and started up on Monday. During the shutdown for the holidays they have improved their railway at Nehalem junction by driving 250 piling in the trestle. Where their camp is now located there is a heavy stand of nice yellow fir timber.
